

QUALITY POLICY

Tecno-Saldature s.r.l. is a company specialized in industrial robotic welding on behalf of third parties. It adopts a quality management system in compliance with the UNI EN ISO 9001:2015 standard and its management has established this quality policy:

VISION

Continuously improve one's process through technological innovation, business management, people's competence.

MISSION

Bring the robotic welding process to the highest levels of reliability.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

- Propose to the market a technologically distinct welding process managed under controlled conditions, which allows it to meet the various needs of customers and guarantee satisfaction;
- Maintain and increase company competence and know-how;
- Implement the culture of quality and involve all stakeholders;
- Adopt an approach to pursuing objectives that takes into account risks and opportunities;
- Pursuing the improvement of infrastructures and the work environment in terms of technological adequacy, safety and health of workers, environmental respect as factors favoring a context that stimulates continuous improvement.

COMMITMENT OF THE MANAGEMENT

- Continuously improve their quality management system;
- Make the necessary resources available to pursue the set objectives;
- Satisfying the requirements both mandatory and voluntarily adopted, as well as all those signed with the customer;
- Periodically review the quality policy and its objectives to ensure that they are relevant and appropriate to the company.

Prato di Correggio, 01-02-2024

Matteo Gherpelli
Presidente

